

I Write...

(by Steve Tieri)

I write because I breathe. I write because I can.

I write as if each blade of grass mattered.

I write to remember my past.

I write with assurance.

I write with hope.

I write to release.

I write.

I.

Write.

I write to indulge.

I write with dignity.

I write for the love of it.

I write to carve and reveal my future.

I write with integrity and good intentions.

I write to help, to heal, to expand, to learn, to share.
